This is the route I travelled myself through Bali and Komodo, and I arrange it in full for you as an 18-day private trip. You start slowly on the west coast, with the sea temple of Tanah Lot at sunset. Then your own driver takes you inland: the royal temple of Taman Ayun, the UNESCO rice terraces of Jatiluwih, the lakes and waterfalls around Munduk and the waterfalls of the north. You climb Mount Batur for the sunrise, visit the mother temple of Besakih and take two days for the Sidemen valley and the water palaces of Karangasem. In Ubud come the Campuhan ridge, the Monkey Forest and the water temple of Tirta Empul. Then you fly to Flores for a speedboat day past Padar and the Komodo dragons, and you finish on the beaches of Uluwatu with the kecak dance.

DAY 4 Ulun Danu Beratan water temple on Lake Bratan

DAY 14 Snorkelling at Pink Beach

My recommended route

This is the route as I put it together for you. It is a starting point, not a fixed programme: leave out what doesn't appeal to you, add what you would like to do and travel at your own pace. Everything below is arranged for you in advance. Prefer a guide? I can add a local guide to any activity.

DAY 1

Arrival on Bali: unwinding on the west coast KEDUNGU (TABANAN)

You leave Brussels the day before on an evening or overnight flight with one or two connections (e.g. via Frankfurt and Singapore, or via Istanbul) and land in Denpasar on Bali. You choose your own start date; I am happy to book the flight for you, or you book it yourself. Your Balinese driver meets you with a name sign in the arrivals hall at Denpasar airport; he stays with you for your whole time on Bali. In about an hour he drives you to the west coast near Kedungu, where your hotel lies between the rice fields and the black-sand beach, far from the crowds of the south. The rest of the day you do nothing at all: pool, beach and recovering from the long flight.

Horse or surfboard, and Tanah Lot at sunset KEDUNGU (TABANAN) ♦ BREAKFAST

The morning belongs to the sea. On Kedungu beach you can ride a horse along the surf or take a first surf lesson on the gentle waves of the bay; I am happy to book them for you (optional). About three hours before sunset your driver takes you to Tanah Lot (approx. 20 min). According to legend, the priest Dang Hyang Nirartha, who came from Java to Bali in the late fifteenth century, chose this rock in the surf to honour the sea gods; since the 1980s the rock has been reinforced against erosion. A little further on, the temple of Batu Bolong stands on a rock arch in the sea. You stay until the sun sinks behind the temples. Tip: a sunset drink on the cliffs (e.g. Galang Sunset) and then fish at Jukung Resto.

Taman Ayun and Batukaru, into the mountains JATILUWIH ♦ BREAKFAST

Today you head inland. In Mengwi (approx. 40 min) you visit Pura Taman Ayun, the 'beautiful garden': the family temple of the rulers of Mengwi, built in 1634, surrounded by a moat, with a park full of ponds and rows of meru towers with five to eleven roofs. After lunch you drive to the southern slope of Batukaru, Bali's second-highest volcano, for Pura Luhur Batukaru: one of the nine temples that protect the island from evil spirits, quiet among the forest and the mossy stones (a sarong is required; you can borrow one at the entrance). From there it is another half hour to your hotel by the rice terraces of Jatiluwih, among the tea gardens.

DAY 4

Morning in the rice terraces, then Ulun Danu Beratan MUNDUK (BANYUATIS) ♦ BREAKFAST

In the cool of the morning you walk through the rice terraces of Jatiluwih, which together with the centuries-old subak irrigation system are a UNESCO World Heritage site. Signposted loops of one to three hours run between the terraces, channels and little shrines; a farmer or guide from the village can tell you more about the work in the fields (available, price on request). After lunch you drive over the mountains to Lake Bratan (approx. 1 hour), where the seventeenth-century temple of Pura Ulun Danu Beratan, dedicated to the lake goddess Dewi Danu, seems to float on the water in the afternoon light. After a short stop at the Handara gate you drive on to your hotel near Munduk (approx. 40 min), among the coffee and clove plantations.

UNESCO rice terraces of Jatiluwih

DAY 5

Munduk, Lake Buyan and the monastery of Banjar MUNDUK (BANYUATIS) ♦ BREAKFAST

The morning is for the countryside around Munduk. On a bike ride, mostly downhill, you pass small villages, rice fields and plantations; I am happy to arrange it for you (optional). Rather walk? Then you hike past the waterfalls of Munduk and Banyu Wana Amertha; the trails are signposted. On the way you see Lake Buyan with the temple of Pura Ulun Danu Buyan on its shore. After lunch you drive to the north coast (approx. 45 min) for Brahmavihara-Arama near Banjar, the largest Buddhist monastery on Bali, inaugurated in 1973, with a small replica of Borobudur, golden Buddha statues from Thailand and Sri Lanka and a quiet garden with a view of the sea.

DAY 6

The waterfalls of the north, up to Batur KINTAMANI (BATUR) ♦ BREAKFAST

Today you drive through the north of Bali. Near Sambangan the waterfalls of Aling-Aling, Kembar and Kroya lie close together in a green gorge. At Aling-Aling you can jump into the natural pools from different heights or slide down a rock chute, supervised by the village guides (optional, I arrange it for you; bring swimwear and water shoes). Then the road climbs to the crater landscape of Kintamani (approx. 1h30), where your hotel lies among the pine trees above Lake Batur.

DAY 7Sunrise on Mount Batur KINTAMANI (BATUR) ♦ BREAKFAST

An early start: at around 3.30 am you leave with a licensed mountain guide (compulsory and included) for the foot of Mount Batur. In about two hours you climb by torchlight over lava sand and rocks to the summit at 1,717 metres, where you watch the sun rise over Lake Batur, with Mount Agung and, on a clear day, Rinjani on Lombok on the horizon. Your guide boils an egg in the steam of the crater. You are back by late morning. After lunch you rest at your hotel, or you let your muscles relax in the hot springs on Lake Batur.

DAY 8Besakih, on to Sidemen SIDEMEN ♦ BREAKFAST

Today you drive to the east of Bali. First Pura Besakih (approx. 1 hour), Bali's mother temple, more than 900 metres up the slopes of sacred Mount Agung: a complex of dozens of shrines on terraces, first mentioned in 1007 and the religious heart of the island since the fifteenth century. A local temple guide is compulsory here (included, as is the sarong). After lunch you drive down to Sidemen (approx. 35 min), a green valley full of rice terraces with a view of Mount Agung. Towards sunset you stroll along the rice fields around your hotel.

DAY 9The Sidemen valley and the water palaces of Karangasem SIDEMEN ♦ BREAKFAST

You start the day with a walk through the Sidemen valley, past rice terraces, irrigation channels, weavers and small villages; a guide from the village is available (price on request). On the way you stop at the Gembleng waterfall, where the water flows over natural pools above the valley. After lunch your driver takes you to the two water palaces of the last king of Karangasem: Tirta Gangga (approx. 1 hour), with ponds, fountains and stepping stones between the statues, and Taman Ujung by the sea, with its pavilions and bridges in a large park. In the evening you are back in Sidemen.

DAY 10Tukad Cepung and Penglipuran, on to Ubud UBUD ♦ BREAKFAST

On the way to Ubud you first stop at the Tukad Cepung waterfall, which you reach after a short walk through a narrow gorge and which falls into a cave; in the morning the sunbeams fall through the opening. Then you visit Penglipuran, a traditional mountain village with identical gateways, a bamboo forest and no cars. In the afternoon you arrive in Ubud (approx. 45 min).

DAY 11The Campuhan ridge, Saraswati and the Monkey Forest UBUD ♦ BREAKFAST

You start the day early with a walk along the Campuhan ridge, a path over a grassy ridge between two river valleys with palm trees and rice fields. Then you walk on into the centre of Ubud, past the royal palace to Pura Taman Saraswati: the temple of the goddess of art and learning, designed in 1951–52 by the sculptor I Gusti Nyoman Lempad, with a large lotus pond at the entrance. After lunch you walk through Ubud's Monkey Forest, a sacred forest with three temples and hundreds of macaques (keep sunglasses and food well out of reach).

DAY 12The Ayung, Goa Gajah, Gunung Kawi and Tirta Empul UBUD ♦ BREAKFAST

In the morning you can go rafting on the Ayung, through a gorge with waterfalls and rice terraces (optional, I am happy to book it for you). After lunch your driver takes you to three sanctuaries east and north of Ubud. Goa Gajah, the eleventh-century Elephant Cave, has a demon's head as its entrance and combines Hindu and Buddhist elements. Gunung Kawi consists of ten eleventh-century shrines carved into the rock face, about 300 steps down in a river valley. At Tirta Empul, built around a holy spring in 962, Balinese purify themselves under the water spouts; wearing a sarong you can step into the pool yourself.

The purification pools of the Tirta Empul water temple

DAY 13To Flores: Labuan Bajo LABUAN BAJO (FLORES) ♦ BREAKFAST

Around midday your driver takes you to Denpasar airport (approx. 1 hour) for the domestic flight to Labuan Bajo on Flores (approx. 1h15, same time zone). A private transfer takes you to your hotel on the hill, with a view over the bay and the islands of Komodo National Park. At sunset you look out over the harbour full of wooden phinisi ships from your terrace or from Bukit Sylvia hill.

DAY 14Padar, Rinca and the Komodo dragons LABUAN BAJO

(FLORES) ♦ BREAKFAST · LUNCH

Very early, at around 5.30 am, you are picked up for a day with your own speedboat and crew in Komodo National Park. On Padar you climb in the first light (approx. 30–45 min, steps and a steep path) to the view over the bays with white, black and pink sand. On Rinca a licensed park ranger (compulsory and included) takes you on foot to the Komodo dragons in the wild. After lunch on board you snorkel at Pink Beach and, with some luck, among the manta rays of Manta Point. Back in the late afternoon. The park requires an online booking for a fixed date (SiOra), and the harbour master only lets boats sail when the sea is safe; otherwise the trip moves to tomorrow.

Komodo dragon in Komodo National Park

DAY 15A day by the pool above the bay LABUAN BAJO (FLORES) ♦ BREAKFAST

A day simply to enjoy: your pool with a view over the islands, a book and the sunset over the bay. It is also the spare day, should the boat not have been allowed to sail yesterday. Feel like going out after all? Then you snorkel or dive off the little island of Kanawa, or swim in the clear water of the Rangko cave; I am happy to arrange it. In the evening you eat fish at the night market by the harbour.

DAY 16Back to Bali: Uluwatu ULUWATU (BINGIN) ♦ BREAKFAST

In the afternoon a private transfer takes you to the airport (approx. 10 min) for the flight back to Denpasar (approx. 1h15). Your Balinese driver meets you and takes you to the Bukit peninsula in the south (approx. 45 min), to your hotel above Bingin beach, among the limestone cliffs and the surf spots.

DAY 17The beaches of Uluwatu and the kecak dance ULUWATU (BINGIN) ♦ BREAKFAST

Today your driver takes you to the most beautiful spots on the Bukit peninsula: the white coves below the cliffs of Padang Padang, Bingin and Suluban, where you climb down to the beach via steps and rock crevices, and the wide beaches of Melasti and Nyang Nyang. A local guide who knows the hidden paths is available (price on request). Towards sunset you visit Pura Luhur Uluwatu, the temple on a seventy-metre cliff above the ocean, and watch the kecak there, the fire dance with a chorus of dozens of men (included).

DAY 18Last day by the sea, departure ♦ BREAKFAST

You spend much of the day enjoying the beach and your hotel. Then your driver takes you to Denpasar airport (approx. 45 min) for your evening or night flight home.

What I arrange for you

1

Pickup on arrival

At Denpasar airport (DPS) your private driver waits in the arrivals hall with a name sign; you receive his name and number by WhatsApp beforehand. In Labuan Bajo (Komodo airport, LBJ) a private transfer is waiting, and after the flight back to Bali your Balinese driver meets you again. On the last day he drops you at Denpasar airport.

2

Hotels

Every night is booked and confirmed in advance, at the level you choose: Budget, Comfort or Premium. Prefer another hotel? I change it.

3

Transport

A private driver and private transfers for the whole route, with domestic flights, trains and boats where they make sense. All booked in advance.

4

Activities, at your pace

The activities and entrance tickets on the route. No guide or group travels with you: you set the pace, and anything you would rather skip, you simply leave out.

5

Eat wherever you like

Breakfast is included, as are the meals at remote camps and lodges where there is no alternative. For the rest I give you my restaurant tips, but you are completely free to choose where you eat. I never recommend a place because I earn a commission on it.

Level and transport

Price coming soon – join the interest list to be the first to receive it. You receive the price per level (Budget, Comfort, Premium) and per transport mode (self-drive or private driver) in your personal proposal.

INTERNATIONAL FLIGHT

I'm happy to book your flight for you, or you book it yourself; if I book it, the flight price for your dates is in your personal quote. Return flight Brussels–Bali not included. I am happy to book the flight for you, or you book it yourself.

SELF-DRIVE: NOT OFFERED ON THIS ROUTE

We do not offer self-drive on Bali. Traffic drives on the left, is busy and unpredictable with thousands of scooters, the mountain roads to Jatiluwih, Munduk and Kintamani are narrow and steep, and in an accident the foreign driver is usually held liable. A car with driver costs barely more than a rental car, and your driver knows the back roads, the ceremonies and the best warnings. On Flores and in Komodo National Park self-drive is not an option either: there you travel with private transfers and a private boat with crew.

WITH A PRIVATE DRIVER

On Bali you have one regular English-speaking driver with a comfortable air-conditioned car, from the airport on arrival until the flight to Flores, and again from the flight back until your departure. Fuel, parking and tolls are included. He is available for up to about 10 hours a day: you stop wherever you like, and on quiet days you simply agree what you want to do. He is a driver, not a guide. Between Bali and Labuan Bajo (Flores) you fly; there private transfers and a private speedboat with crew take care of the rest.

Three accommodation levels

Budget

Well-kept guesthouses, homestays and simple hotels with excellent reviews and breakfast, often with a pool or a view.

Comfort

Small resorts and boutique hotels with pool and breakfast: among the rice fields on the west coast, by the Jatiluwih terraces, with a view in Munduk, Sidemen and Labuan Bajo, within walking distance of central Ubud.

Premium

The finest addresses in each place: villas with a private pool, resorts by the sea and above the Uluwatu cliffs, lodges with a view of the volcanoes.

Possible guided moments

Prefer a guide? I can add a local guide to any activity.

- ✦ On this trip you discover everything at your own pace with your driver, without a fixed guide: your roadbook tells you what to see where.
- ✦ Always with a guide, because it is compulsory (and included): the mountain guide on Mount Batur, the temple guide at Besakih and the park rangers on Padar and Rinca.
- ✦ Available, price on request: a Balinese guide at Taman Ayun and Batukaru, a guide from the village in Jatiluwih or Sidemen, a licensed guide at the temples around Ubud and a local guide along the beaches of Uluwatu.

Ideas to adapt the route

- Shorter (15 days): without Komodo (Bali only)
- Longer: an extra night in Jatiluwih, for the mountain temple of Batukaru and the Yeh Ho waterfall
- Longer: a day to the cliffs and manta rays of Nusa Penida, an overland journey across Flores (Wae Rebo, Bajawa, Kelimutu) or the Gili islands and Lombok
- Sleep at sea: instead of the speedboat, a phinisi sailing boat with a cabin for 2 days/1 night in Komodo National Park
- More action: diving in Komodo, a cooking class in Ubud or a second surf day in Uluwatu
- Travelling with children? Fewer moves, hotels with a pool and an extra beach day
- Every hotel can be swapped: e.g. Budget on the way and Premium in Ubud or Uluwatu

Included

- ✓ 17 nights with breakfast at the level you choose (Budget, Comfort or Premium)
- ✓ Private air-conditioned car with English-speaking driver on Bali, from the airport on arrival to the airport on departure (except the days on Flores), fuel, parking and tolls included
- ✓ Domestic flights Denpasar – Labuan Bajo return (incl. 20 kg baggage) and private airport – hotel transfers in Labuan Bajo
- ✓ Full day with private speedboat and crew in Komodo National Park (Padar, Rinca, Pink Beach, Manta Point), with snorkelling gear, lunch and water on board
- ✓ Komodo National Park entrance, harbour fee, the compulsory park rangers on Padar and Rinca and the online booking (SiOra)
- ✓ Sunrise trek on Mount Batur with the compulsory licensed mountain guide
- ✓ Entrance fees: Tanah Lot, Taman Ayun, Batukaru, the Jatiluwih rice terraces, Ulun Danu Beratan, Brahmavihara-Arama, Besakih (with the compulsory temple guide), Tirta Gangga, Taman Ujung, Tukad Cepung, Penglipuran, the Monkey Forest, Goa Gajah, Gunung Kawi, Tirta Empul, Uluwatu and the kecak performance
- ✓ Bali tourist levy (IDR 150,000)
- ✓ Detailed roadbook with the route, driving times and my favourite addresses

Not included

- International flight (Brussels – Denpasar return); I am happy to book the flight for you, or you book it yourself
- Visa on arrival / e-VOA (IDR 500,000, approx. €25)
- Travel and cancellation insurance (travel assistance insurance compulsory)
- Lunches and dinners (except lunch on board in Komodo) and drinks: I give you my addresses, you choose freely where to eat
- Optional activities: horse riding or a surf lesson in Kedungu, the bike ride around Munduk, jumping at Aling-Aling, rafting on the Ayung, snorkelling or diving at Kanawa (I am happy to book them for you)
- Local guides at the sights (available, price on request); tips for the driver, crew, mountain guide and rangers (guideline approx. €4 pp per day)

Practical information

VISA (BELGIAN CITIZENS)

Visa on arrival or online e-VOA in advance (IDR 500,000, approx. €25), 30 days, extendable once. Passport valid for at least 6 months on arrival with blank pages. Complete the digital All Indonesia arrival card beforehand. Bali charges a one-off tourist levy of IDR 150,000 (included).

HEALTH

No mandatory vaccinations when travelling directly from Belgium. Recommended: hepatitis A and your routine vaccines (tetanus-diphtheria-pertussis, measles); consider typhoid, rabies (monkeys, dogs) and Japanese encephalitis depending on profile. Dengue occurs: use insect repellent. Malaria: low risk on Bali and in West Flores (Labuan Bajo, Komodo); anti-mosquito measures are enough, preventive malaria tablets are not needed there. Get tested for malaria straight away if you have a fever during or after the trip. Komodo dragons: always stay with your ranger and the group, keep at least 5 metres away, never run or feed them, no food on the trail; tell the ranger discreetly about an open wound or menstruation. Consult wanda.be (ITG).

CURRENCY & PAYMENT

Indonesian rupiah (IDR); €1 ≈ IDR 20,400 (late September 2026; rate fluctuates). ATMs in Ubud, Sanur and Labuan Bajo; cash needed in rural areas and on the islands.

FLIGHT TIME FROM BRUSSELS

Approx. 16–20h travel time with 1–2 connections (e.g. via Singapore, Doha, Dubai or Istanbul). You leave the day before day 1 on an evening or overnight flight; day 1 is your arrival on Bali.

TIME DIFFERENCE

Bali and Flores (WITA, UTC+8): +6h in Belgian summer, +7h in winter.

LANGUAGE

Bahasa Indonesia; Balinese on Bali, Manggarai on Flores. English in tourism.

MEALS

Breakfast is included every day, as is lunch on board in Komodo. For the other meals I give you my favourite warungs and restaurants, but you are completely free to choose where you eat.

GUIDES

Prefer a guide? I can add a local guide to any activity (available, price on request). Only the compulsory guides are included: the mountain guide on Mount Batur, the temple guide at Besakih and the park rangers on Padar and Rinca.

As of September 2026: check diplomatie.belgium.be (travel advice) and wanda.be (health) before you travel.

Travelling responsibly

We choose small, locally run accommodation in Kedungu, Jatiluwih, Munduk, Sidemen and Labuan Bajo, work with local drivers, mountain guides and a local boat crew so income stays in the community, and avoid the busiest places at the busiest times (Tanah Lot and Ulun Danu Beratan early or late in the day). In Komodo National Park we follow the daily quotas and park rules: always with a ranger, take nothing and leave nothing, no standing on coral, no anchoring on the reef. Low-plastic travel with water refills in the car and on the boat; respect for temple dress and ceremonies. The Bali tourist levy supports culture and environment projects on the island.
